

36th International Islamic Unity Conference

Call for paper

Islamic unity, peace and avoiding division and conflict in the Islamic world;

Executive solutions and operational measures

1- Just War and Just peace

- Defining just peace and just war and examining the principles and characteristics of each of them
- The differences and similarities between war, and the Islamic Jihad from the perspective of Islamic denominations
- Strategies and solutions for just peace and prevention of war between Islamic countries from the perspective of the Qur'an and Sunnah with emphasis on principles such as rationality, the purposes of Sharia and expediency
- Contemporary international experiences of the mechanisms and drivers of lasting peace and a world without war
- Explaining the role of colonialism and global arrogance in contemporary wars in Islamic countries and ways to deal with it
- Political, social, cultural and economic factors of the current wars in Islamic lands, the consequences of these wars and ways to end them
- Jurisprudential and ethical study of the using weapons of mass destruction and nuclear weapons
- Rights and duties of civilians and fighters in war from the perspective of Islamic jurisprudence, law and ethics
- Occupation of Islamic lands and the responsibility of Muslims and Islamic governments in liberation of them

2- Islamic Brotherhood and countering Terrorism

- Approaches to promoting the model of Islamic brotherhood and moral virtues in the coexistence of Muslims
- Factors, motives and consequences of the assassination of elites, scientists and religious, scientific and cultural activists in the Islamic world and ways to deal with it
- Methods of domination system to destroy the Islamic Brotherhood and promote terrorism and ways to deal with it
- Governmental terrorism and international treaties to combat it
- Suicide operations, different readings and actions in contemporary movements and currents in the Islamic world
- Respect for the human soul from the perspective of Islamic denominations and the difference between assassination of a person, and being Mahdur-al-Dam (a person whose blood is void) in Islamic punishment
- Ways of confronting the financial, military, media and intelligence support for terrorism in the world
- The constructive role of Islamic governmental and non-governmental organizations to prevent terrorism

3- Religious Freethinking, Acceptance of Denominational Ijtihad and Confronting Takfir Extremism

- Theoretical criteria of infidelity, faith and Islam in Islamic denominations and their criticism
- Theoretical foundations of Takfirism in the Islamic world and its criticism
- The origins and consequences of Takfiri sects and contemporary extremist groups and their evolution in the Islamic world and the currentology and futurology of ways to deal with them
- The role of colonialism and global arrogance in promoting the idea and current of Takfir and extremism in the Islamic world

4- Islamic Empathy and Sympathy and Avoidance of Tensions and Conflicts

- Backgrounds and factors of ethnic and sectarian conflicts in the Islamic world and ways to deal with them
- Backgrounds and factors of denominational and sectarian conflicts in Islamic countries and ways to deal with them

- Rival Islams and the challenges and dangers of tensions and conflicts between them and ways to prevent and exit them
- Currentology and futurology of tensions and conflicts in Islamic countries and ways to prevent them
- Investigating the capacities of inciting conflict within Islamic countries and ways to deal with them
- Designing and promoting models of empathy and sympathy among Muslims in times of disasters, calamities and crises
- Backgrounds, factors and ways to deal with attacks and pressures on Muslim minorities in different countries of the world

5- Mutual Respect between Islamic Denominations, Observance of the Etiquettes of Difference and Avoidance of Quarrels, Desecration and Insults

- Etiquettes of difference in the life of the Holy Prophet (PBUH), Ahl al-Bayt (AS), companions and Islamic scholars
- Moral teachings and jurisprudential rules of Islam about controversy and its relationship with the activities of the media in the Islamic world
- Using the capacity of the media and cyberspace to promote coexistence based on Islamic customs, free thinking, culture of tolerance and open-mindedness and to prevent insults and offences
- Mechanisms of cooperation between Islamic countries to prevent and counter insulting programs in divisive and degrading media and channels
- The principles and teachings of respect for Muslims and non-Muslims and the prohibition of offences, and insults to religious sanctities and religious leaders in Islamic jurisprudence and ethics and explaining their practical mechanisms in the world
- The role of global arrogance and international Zionism in economic and spiritual support of divisive and desecrating media and channels

6- Normalization of relations with the usurping Zionist regime

- Normalizing relations with the Zionist regime is an unforgivable sin and betrayal to the Palestinian resistance and people;
- Smoothing the relationship with the Zionist regime by statesmen and scholars attached to the powers and the negative view of the nations towards this project;
- The effect of relations with the Zionist regime in the balance of power in the region;
- Behind the scenes of normalizing relations with the Zionist regime.

* Article limits: 8 to 20 pages of 300 words

* The deadline for registration on the conference website: September 10, 2022

* The deadline for abstract submission: September 10, 2022

* The deadline for sending the original article: September 25, 2022

* Conference website address for registration: <https://iuc.taqrib.ir>

* Address of the secretary of the conference: Approximate Studies Research Center, Corner of 4th Alley, 15 Khordad boulevard, Qom, Iran.

* Email: info.taqrib@gmail.com

* Phone: +98253775445, extension 137 & 143